The Lost Money Box.

The stealing of a money box containing nearly $500 from the trailer of an electric train about 8 o'clock yesterday morning has been the subject of much comment.

Conductor A. A. Davis, who had the receipt in charge, placed it under the seat in the rear end of the car, and many believe the box was taken before the train left the Royal street station. The officials of the company in conjunction with the Alexandria and Washington police have worked assiduously ever since in their endeavors to identify and capture the thief. The company in order to stimulate the search immediately offered a reward of $50 for the apprehension and conviction of the guilty party.

Shortly after the police were informed of the robbery suspicion pointed to a former employee of the company, and this clue was closely followed. It was known that the suspect had been seen around the Royal street station just before the train started, and had boarded the trailer at the last moment. Just where he left the train is not known, although the man, it was supposed, had been traced to the ferry wharf, where, it is alleged, he took the 8:30 boat for Washington, and from the ferry wharf in that city he proceeded to Roslyn, where he was said to have boarded a Fall Church car. Several storekeepers on lower King street, after they heard of the robbery, recalled the fact that they had seen a man carrying a tin box hurrying toward the ferry wharf shortly after 8 o'clock in the morning. It is said that when he reached Union street he saw a person approaching from the Strand, whom he evidently did not want to meet. He turned north on Union street and proceeded to Fayette alley through which he passed to the ferry boat.

It was later discovered, however, that this man was not the thief. A young man, a clerk in a King street drug store, saw a man with a box leave the train at Henry street and hurry northward. He is believed to have been the real fugitive. Chi-fu Goods and Officers Beach and Jones later boarded a train and proceeded as far as Manassas in hopes of intercepting the thief, but the latter seemed to have obtained too much of a start on his pursuers. Dispatches have been sent to various points near Alexandria giving descriptions of the man wanted, and there is every reason to believe he will yet be captured.

The man who is suspected of having stolen the box was not around his usual loitering place yesterday.

Alexandria County Day.

Alexandria County Day at Luna Park yesterday was a decided success. The resort was well patronized during the day and a large concourse of people was present after dark. The weather was ideal. The programme consisted of athletic sports on the big plot of ground immediately in front of the dancing pavilion. There were egg races, races of war, 100-yard dashes for both men and women, three-legged races, and many other interesting contests. A prize was awarded to the tallest man present and to the man having the largest family at the park. C. R. Pritchard, of Arlington, won the first prize of $10 and G. W. E. Spangler, of near Arlington, won the prize of $10 for having the largest family in the immediate descendants numbering twelve flourishing youngsters. The baseball game played between the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway Company was won by the former, 9 to 3. The winning team received a purse of $20. The winner in the amateur tournament for boys under sixteen was Master Harry Ashton, who received a prize of $5. The new Greater Washington Band furnished the music for all the events, and Miss Yvonne d'Arcy gave her thrilling performance in the "amusement automobile." Miss d'Arcy gives this wonderful exhibition nightly.

Fugitive Jumped Overboard.

Nep Penn, a day or two ago swore out a warrant against an acquaintance charging him with assault. When the case was called in the Police Court the plaintiff could not be found and Officer Jones was sent out on a search for him. Penn saw the officer coming and fled, and finding he was being closely pressed, leaped overboard and remained in the water until the officer left the neighborhood. Officer Bell found Penn this morning and conducted him before Justice Gaston. He was dismissed with an admonition.

Ran Aground.

The ferry steamer Woodward on her 6:30 trip this morning from this city ran aground near the Washington Arsenal. Previous to grounding the steamer ran on a buoy which pierced the floor of the ladies' saloon. The accident was caused by the dense fog which prevailed at that time. An unsuccessful effort was made by the steamer Callahan to pull the Woodward into deep water. The steamer Washington from Norfolk later came along and succeeded in pulling the grounded steamer into the channel.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Nep Penn, arrested by Officer Bell charged with contempt of court, was dismissed with an admonition.

John Allen, colored, charged with assault, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

James Johnson, colored, charged with assaulting his wife, was dismissed.

Property Sale.

Mr. S. H. Hunt sold at auction today for John D. Normoye, H. Bader and P. M. Bradshaw, trustees, a lot of ground 20 by 85 feet with improvements thereon, situated on the south side of Duke street, between Columbus and Alfred, to Mrs. Rosa Leake for $1,850 cash.

A number of young people went on a straw ride last night.

Personal.

Announcement has been made of the approaching wedding of Miss Agnes C. Bryant, daughter of Captain Bryant, of this city, and Lieut. John Downes, Jr., U. S. N., of Massachusetts. The wedding will take place during the latter part of October.

To Return to this City.

The resignation of Captain William M. King, Jr., of Company A, Seventieth regiment, has been placed in the hands of the adjutant-general. The resignation was forwarded to Colonel W. J. Perry, at Staunton, who has returned it with his approval that the request of Captain King be complied with. Captain King has been in the service many years, and he asks that he be retired, with his present rank. He has made an excellent officer and the resignation will come as a surprise. Captain King will leave the city and make his home in Alexandria in the near future, and this is the cause of his resignation. It is understood that an election will be ordered within a short time so that the company may have a captain at the time of the inspection of the companies in this city.—[Richmond News-Leader.]

The Late Mr. Hooe.

A dispatch from Warrenton says: It has been learned that John D. Hooe, before shooting himself recently, had been playing solitaire on his veranda and had left a cut deck of cards on the table just before taking his life. This has led to the belief that he voluntarily decided his fate with the cards. Gwynn Tompkins, a close personal friend, arrived from Sheepshead Bay yesterday, and admits receiving two letters from Mr. Hooe, one in July and the other immediately after the tragedy. In the latter Mr. Hooe said: "If I kick the bucket you will find my papers," and he named a drawer in his desk. Following this communication came the telegram announcing his death.

Death of an Alexandrian.

Intelligence received here from Richmond today announces the death of Mr. John S. Knox, formerly of this city. The deceased was a brother of Capt. R. F. Knox, and was engaged in the commission business in Alexandria prior to and during the civil war. Several years ago he removed to Richmond where he was employed in the State Auditor's office. He was a soldier in the Army of Northern Virginia during the war, and was 50 years old. His remains will be brought here and interred in Ivy Hill cemetery on Saturday.
